

FSSAI launches online training programme for food businesses

The training programme will cater to all stakeholders in the food ecosystem comprising of manufacturers, packers, transporters, retailers and food delivery partners and aggregators

07 May 2020

In a bid to enable and equip food businesses to function and reduce the risk of Covid-19, FSSAI has launched a training programme for food businesses under its flagship Food Safety Training & Certification programme (FoSTaC).

The training will be conducted online through the empanelled training partners. Food businesses can visit www.fostac.fssai.gov.in or connect the FoSTaC training partners directly for this certification programme. The training programme will cater to all stakeholders in the food ecosystem comprising of manufacturers, packers, transporters, retailers and food delivery partners and aggregators.

The agencies/ NGOs serving food in places including langar, community kitchens etc. should also get their food handlers trained for COVID-19 precautionary measures.

A certificate of participation shall be issued to the trainees through the FoSTaC portal. In addition to training for Covid-19 precautions, FSSAI has also rolled out several other courses on food safety are available under the FoSTaC programme of FSSAI, details of which are available on:www.fosctac.fssai.gov.in.